

NEWS FEED

SEC APPROVES FUND

The Securities and Exchange Commission approved the establishment of the Jasmine Broadband Internet Infrastructure Fund (JASIF) on January 20, according to Jasmine International.

JASIF will invest in the ownership of and the rights to benefit from the revenues generated by the core fibre-optic network for broadband Internet from Triple Three Broadband, a subsidiary of Jasmine. The fund worth Bt55 billion-Bt57.75 billion will offer 5.5 billion units to investors.